LOCAL REVOLUTION.

Next Sunday is Easter.

The river is going down rapidly.

The city council meets next Friday night.

Rockport, Ind., has struck gas at a depth of 615 feet.

Several communications crowded out this week.

Gregory & Co. keep all kinds of building material.

When you go to Hardinsburg stop at the Hickory House.

Anna Corley at Pataville, lost a barn filled with tobacco.

Have your prescriptions compounded at Martin's drug store.

There will be an Easter service in Fisher's hall on Sunday next.

Bob Mattingly sold 12 head of hogs yesterday at 3 cents gross.

Read our new Novellette in this issue. It is a charming little story.

Fresh garden seeds, onion sets, apples and bananas for sale at Martin's.

A force of carpenters are at work repairing the storm stricken church.

Just received a large line of paints, oils, varnishes and brushes at Owen's.

You can get a good square meal at the Hickory House, Hardinsburg, for 25 cents.

If you need anything in the paint line it will pay you to call on W. O. Owen.

It is stated that the damage to property in Webster county will amount to $150,000.

Owen can sell you ready mixed paint cheaper than anybody and guarantee the quality.

Gregory & Co., are selling fertilizers at only 10 cent profit. Try them before you buy.

V. G. Babage and Morris Eklridge, of Hardinsburg, were here on legal business last week.

Capt. John James, an old river man, well known all along the river is dead at Rockport, Ind.

If you want lumber, shingles or any kind of building material don't fail to call on Gregory & Co.

THE WORK OF THE STORM AT LOUISVILLE!

SWEEPING DOWN UPON THE CITY LEAVING DEATH AND RUIN BEHIND IT.

Two Millions of Dollars Worth of Property Swept Away in a Few Minutes.

One Hundred Lives Lost and Many More Injured.

We have no space to give many details of the terrible cyclone which, in a few minutes, carried death and such wide spread destruction to property in Louisville on the night of the 27th of March.

The killed outright are estimated at about 100, while the injured, to a greater or less degree, will reach several hundred.

The greatest loss of life occurred at the Falls City Hall on Market street between Eleventh and Twelfth. Several societies had their lodge rooms in the building, and a dancing school, and a musical club were in progress at the time.

The building collapsed without warning to the inmates and many were killed at the spot.

The greatest destruction in dollars and cents was on Main street from the Louisville Hotel down to Thirteenth street. It consisted of business blocks of a costly character and embraced the tobacco warehouses. Nearly every building in this area was destroyed or greatly damaged.

The tobacco warehouses were left, the Pickett.

The Louisville Hotel was only slightly injured, but the cigar store of Virgil I. Monday.

Mr. Thos. C. Coleman returned home from Henderson last week.

Mr. Thos. H. Ditto is the state agricultural agent for this county.

Miss Emma English returned to her home at Shepherdton last Friday.

"Wait till the tide rolls by" is what the people along the river bark are singing.

Glid to learn Mr. Editor that your subscription list is building to the number of ten a day.

Mr. Gus Benham's wife is suffering very much from rheumatism and erysipelas in one of her eyes.

Saturday the water reached its highest at this point, lashed about 8 feet of reaching the '81 mark.

Potter Miller, who sold his place to the Consolidated Gas Company, expects to move to Indiana shortly.

"A man born of woman never ceases to have trouble."—A man that lives on the Ohio river is in the same box.

Quite a number went up on the Ohio Saturday evening to see the disaster Louisville caused by the storm.

Mr. John Louis Henry was in town Saturday, said the storm destroyed considerable fencing out through the country.

Aaron Woods, (col.) handed me a dollar and wanted the News sent to him. Says he wants to draw the Berkshire pig.

Mr. Frank Crozier, of New Albany, was in town last week. Frank lived here a few years ago and his many friends regret to see him.

The high water has caused the people living on the river front to move out again. The water is over nearly all of the bottom across the river.

Mr. F. T. Bishop and Miss Mattie Dupin, of Walden, were quietly married Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Gabriel Dupin.

Messrs John Nevitt and Tom McDonald were in town last Thursday, say they don't think the wheat crop so seriously injured in their neighborhood as was reported.

Mr. Sherman across the river had a barn to blow down the night of the storm containing four or five hundred barrels of potatoes and considerable tobacco in it.

At this writing we are suffering some inconvenience in getting the mail. No boats and no trains able to get through to Louisville. "It never rains but it pours."

Marriage licenses were issued to Mr. Joseph Foot and Miss Annie Jones, Mr. Tom Marston and Miss Alice Young, last week. Despite the hard times and bad weather folks will get married.

It Is No Lottery Scheme.

You get value received for your money

in one of the Best County Papers published in the State, and then we give you a ticket which entitles you to a chance in the drawing.

We have adopted the Drawing method of distributing the Presents, because it is the only fair way of doing it.

PLAN OF DRAWING.

A duplicate of every ticket sold is placed in a box and in another box cards with the names of all the prizes. Two little boys or girls will be selected to do the drawing. One will draw from the box containing the tickets the other from the box containing the prizes. A ticket will be drawn out and at the same time a prize.

If the prize drawn out is the Wagon, the Watch, the Suit of Furniture, or any one of the prizes, it will go to the person holding the number of the first ticket drawn out and so on until all the tickets are drawn out.

LIST OF PRIZES

The following is a partial list of the prizes. Others will be added as we make arrangements for them.

One Two-horse Farm Wagon, spring seat and brake.

One Suit of Furniture, three pieces, antique oak, very handsome.

One Gold Watch for elderly lady or gentleman.

One Sewing Machine complete, with all the attachments.

One Hundred Fruit Trees.

One Man's Saddle.

One Plow.

One Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, latest edition.

One Handsome Set Engraving.

Two Tuition Certificates in Evansville Business College.

One Scholarship in Commercial College, Lexington, Ky.

One Lovell Washing Machine.

The list is not near completed. Many other valuable and useful articles will be added from time to time as they come in.

The drawing will come off some time in December or January next;

we have not settled upon the exact date.

It will be conducted in a public hall (Fisher's) in this city and open to everybody to see that it is carried on fairly and impartially.

It will be one of the biggest things that ever happened in this town

The people of Breckenridge and Meade counties will all be interested and we expect a thousand or more of them to be here upon that occasion. If they are not interested now, they will be before the time comes.

A Peculiar Case.

Dr. H. C. Edmunds, of Elberton, Ga.,

writes: "A very peculiar and strange case of blood poison came under my attention

a short time ago. A gentleman came here from Athens, Ga., where he had been bit ten on the hand by a vicious mule that was breaking to work. The hand was in a horrible condition, and the inflammation was rapidly extending throughout his entire system. Every knuckle on his hand was an ulcer that was deep and aching.

He stated to me that he had consulted several physicians, and taken their medicine without deriving any benefit. I gave him a course of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), and in a few days he reported me a marked improvement, and in one week from the time he commenced taking S. S. S. the hand was healed up and the poison entirely eradicated from his system. It is my opinion that he would have lost his life

had it not been for the health-giving properties contained in Swift's Specific. He frankly admits himself that S. S. S. did it."

of Pratt and Green Streets, where he is engaged in business. Mr. Williams stated that he held a part of ticket No.

1,135 in the Monthly Drawing of February 11th, and as soon as he saw that his ticket had caught a prize he drew the ticket company, through the Adams Express Company, and the prize was drawn from the date of the drawing a draft on the Importers and Traders

National Bank of New York City. The draft was cashed in Baltimore, and the money deposited here in bank. Mr. Williams takes his good fortune calmly, and says that he intends to stick to his business and to the Louisiana State Lottery which he captures the capital prize, when he will put both—Baltimore (Md.) Herald,

Feb. 28.

Another Lucky Holder.

Five thousand Dollars more of the Second Capital Prize of the last monthly

drawing of The Louisiana State Lottery

has come to Baltimore, the fortunate winner is Mr. William Schopflecher, of 725

West Lexington street. He is in charge of the books of Goldenberg Bros., 17 West

Lexington street, and is a very courteous gentleman. When interviewed he said that he held one-twentieth of ticket No.

41,135, and that he had drawn $5,000 on February 11th. He had received the money. The ticket was placed with a city bank and through it collected, and the money is now deposited in Baltimore.

This is the second time Mr. Schopflecher has invested in this lottery. He purchased a ticket in December last upon which he did not realize. The accession of the money will not interrupt his present business arrangements. It will be remembered that Mr. Percy Williams, of Green and Pratt streets, also held a part of the same ticket—Baltimore (Md.) Herald,

March 1.

Oysters in Every Style.

Hon. Ephraim Muggins (in restaurant)

—Well, waiter, what have you got?

Waiter—Got most o' y' thing sir, got steak an' lu' chop, an'—

Waiter—Yes, but oyster any oyster?

Hon. E. M.—Got any oyster?

Waiter—Yes, sir, got oysters in every style.

Hon. E. M.—Bring me some oysters in every style, then, and be quick about it.

Mamma and little Helen were seated in the crowded street car. The small girl was crying the floor intently, and the passengers were crying her with considerable curiosity.

"Mamma, she's pined out."

"What is it, dear?"

"Mamma, I believe I see a beding."
